The Fauquier Heritage and Preservation Foundation seeks funding to maintain the Old Salem Meeting House, now known as the John Kenneth Gott Library, including items such as shelving, lighting and other furnishings and accommodations. Funds are also needed to defray normal operating expenses, including publication of the FHPF monthly newsletter, which we mail to all of our members; website maintenance; library operations; and preservation of our ever-expanding collection of historical documents, books, and artifacts. Membership dues help to finance some of these basic costs. We truly appreciate your support.

To become a member, please print out, complete, and mail this form to our address (P. O. Box 594, Marshall, Virginia 20116) along with your check made payable to the Fauquier Heritage and Preservation Foundation.
